

In Memory Of Ghassem Khakbaz

1941 – 2023

PASSED AWAY ON MAY 8, 2023

GHASSEM was born on December 30, 1941, in Kert Lorestan, to Hassan Khakbaz and Masomeh Gorji. He celebrated life, touching so many lives through his caring, and loving support of others. He enjoyed reading Persian history and literature.

Ghassem was a great admirer of Persian culture and literature, with a profound and lifelong devotion to the works of Ferdowsi, the immortal poet of Iran. The Shahnameh, Ferdowsi's grand epic of Persian kings and heroes, held a special place in his heart.

He was a husband, brother, father, and best friend to his family and friends. He is survived by his wife, children, grand children and numerous friends.
